

CIRCULATION
LARGEST IN THE CITY.
Purely Business!
The columns of a newspaper represent a cash value. No publisher can afford to give advertising "notions" free any more than a merchant can give away the counter-true gifts of dry goods or shoes. A newspaper is a business, and its columns are its stock in trade, and advertisements should be paid for, no matter in what part of the paper they appear.

The Continued Calls
Upon THE LEDGER for free notices have become so burdensome that we are forced to publish the following terms:
For Notices of Shoppers.
Excursions, fairs, or other public entertainments where a fee is charged, and for ordinary notices, resolutions of respect, etc., THE LEDGER will charge FIVE CENTS A LINE, and hereafter this will be the unvarying rule. This, however, does not include notices of Lodge meetings or Church services, which must not exceed ten lines.
Avoidance of Disputes.
Misunderstandings are unpleasant. The rate for Business Notices in THE LEDGER is 10 cents a line for the first insertion and 5 cents a line for subsequent insertions. A customer orders a five-line local notice in the paper. "I'll tell you when to take it out," he says to the bookkeeper. But he forgets all about it. The notice runs for two months—40 times—the bill is $10.25. When he finds it out there is a "kick" and a controversy, followed probably by an icy letter. To obviate this trouble, no "bill-forgotten" notices will be accepted hereafter. Let a have a definite agreement at the outset and the termination will be pleasant all around.

Governor Bradley made regulation on the authorities of Ohio for George Jones, colored, wanted for burglary at Millersburg, and he was turned over to the Kentucky officer.

Judge Thomas R. Plister attended the Chicago Convention. When that body nominated a Populist for President and a Protectionist-Banker-Millionaire for Vice-President the Judge took to the Wisconsin woods and just got home Saturday.

The work of clearing away the wreck of W. D. Mathews & Co.'s Mills began this morning, and the work of rebuilding will commence at once. The loss, fortunately, will not be as heavy as first reported—$10,000—as some of the most expensive machinery is susceptible of repair.

Sunday's Courier-Journal contained several half-tones of historic sites in our neighboring town of Washington, among them the birthplace of General Albert Sydney Johnston and the house in which the late Harriet Beecher Stowe was a guest when she visited the town and witnessed the slave sale in the Courthouse yard that is said to have prompted the narrative of "Uncle Tom's Cabin."

THE GOVERNOR ILL.
Re is in Cincinnati For Treatment For Throat Trouble.

Governor W. O. Bradley of Kentucky is the guest of Mr. D. D. Woodmansee at Cincinnati. The Governor is there for treatment for throat trouble and says that his physician has forbidden him to talk, and he is even denied the pleasure of social converse. He is suffering from the effects of his extraordinary experience on the hustings during the campaign for the Governorship, and besides it is something of an old ailment. The Governor is quite despondent over it.

OFFICERS ELECTED.

Of successful experience in the manufacture of Watch Movements and Watch Cases, and with the mechanical knowledge gained in the construction of special machinery and tools necessary for the manufacture of watches, we have reason to believe that no factory in the world is better able to produce a bicycle of superior design and workmanship. Our machinery is the finest and most modern in existence. Our workmen are trained to a greater degree of accuracy than is usually observed in any bicycle factory. Where is the bicycle factory that is capable of producing a machine made equal to a Duober-Hampden Watch or machinery required to manufacture same?

COMMITTEE MEETING.
The Republicans are Organizing For a Vigorous Campaign.

The meeting of the Republican Executive Committee of Mason County, held Saturday afternoon in the parlor of the Central Hotel, was attended by most of the members.

The meeting was called to order by Chairman Mathews, and in the absence of the Secretary, S. T. Hickman, D. G. Wilson of Orangeburg was chosen Secretary pro tem.

The most important business transacted was the appointment in each Precinct of a sub-committee composed of sterling Republicans who will see to a thorough organization of the county for the approaching contest.

Some minor details of the prospective work were looked after, and the Committee adjourned to meet again at the same place Saturday, August 23d.

He explained to Judge Gregg that he had come there to sell some tobacco and after visiting the Over the Rhine district became confused about his bearings.

He was fined $25 and costs. Now, will some walking city directory please tell us who Henry Rummels is? It seems like every son-of-a-sea-cook who gets into trouble anywhere tells the authorities that he is from Mayville.

Another Great Calamity at Morrison, Col.

Causing Greater Loss of Life Than Friday Night's Flood.

Twenty-five Bodies Recovered and Identified—Others Buried in the Sand or Carried Down the River.

Also Again Visited.

Morrison, Col., July 27.—A second flood Saturday afternoon resulted in completely paralyzing all efforts to recover the bodies of those lost in the debris of Friday night's flood. The people are worn out with the excitement and labor of struggling amidst the rubbish brought down the canyon by the great flood of water which Friday night just at dark surprised the sleeping families along the road above town. At dark Saturday night 20 bodies had been recovered and identified. The others are either buried from sight in the sand or have been carried further down the stream and possibly into the Platte river. Reports from up the canyon bring the cheering news that none of the people there camping were lost.

The list of dead follows: Mrs. Moses Miller and three children, of Morrison; child of J. C. Longenecker, of Morrison; Thomas Miller, of Morrison; Mrs. Dayton, O.; Mrs. A. S. Proctor, 35 years old; Robert James Proctor, 5 years; Grace Proctor, 7 years; Edith Proctor, 3 years; Mrs. T. F. Proctor, 35 years; Anna Casey, 12 years; Edith Casey, 10 years; Annie Casey, 8 years; Anna Casey, 5 years; Clara Casey, 3 years; Mrs. Anthony Herres, 11 years; Mary Herres, 7 years; Mabel Herres, 2 years; Josephine Herres, 6 years; Carl Herres, 4 years; Anna Herres, 3 years; Miss Della Horner, Miss Mary Horner, Miss Josephine Horner, Mrs. Horace M. Warren, all of Denver.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Warren, who are well known in Brooklyn society, where their relatives and friends reside, came up from Denver Friday on the afternoon train for the flood and Sunday at the Horner ranch, up Mount Vernon canyon. They were at the station of the Lake and Platte railroad at Golden, where the Misses Horner and Miss Josephine Horner, also of Denver, and started for the ranch. The flood overtook them and the four ladies were drowned. Their bodies were found Sunday morning buried under brush and sand about 200 feet from the place where the water struck the carriage. Mr. Warren was swept away and his body was lodged in the branches of a tree, where he was afterward found, terribly bruised, but alive.

Miss Horner was the daughter of the manager of the Denver and North Platte and the Misses Horner were daughters of Judge J. W. Horner, also of Denver. Seventeen persons in cabins and bunks in Bear Creek canyon, about one above town, constituted one party. One of the Proctor children was rescued by the heroic efforts of two young men who braved the flood water to the highest point to save the child. She says the water came while they were in the house and were all swept away.

The Herres family became extinct, the father and husband having died five months ago. The father and mother were also in this party. Mrs. Miller lived here, her husband being engaged in mining and was not at home at the time. The Longenecker family were upstairs in their home when the flood came. He saved all but one member of the family, a little girl named Mary Johnson, Mrs. A. A. Johnson, Mrs. J. F. Edward, all of Golden.

Another flood came over the canyon Sunday afternoon but no lives were lost. Seventeen people came in from Idaho Springs Saturday afternoon, having left the train for the flood and walking in from that point. They report that the track and roadbed is about all gone between Golden and Denver Brook.

About seven o'clock Saturday night threatening clouds came over the hill from the direction of Morrison. It had been cloudy and foggy all day, and the clouds gathered into ominous looking masses. Rain fell in torrents from the west, followed by hail, then a wall of water from twenty-five to thirty feet in height came rushing down Clear creek, carrying everything before it. The flood struck about half an hour, and was followed by a heavy rain, which continued until about 10 o'clock. At that hour a body of water, greater in quantity than the first flood, came down Tucker gulch, emptying into Clear creek. It was this second flood that carried away the house of Johnson and his family, and which drowned Mrs. Edwards.

Denver, Col., July 27.—The victims of Friday night's flood at Morrison, Colo., were recovered today. The bodies of Golden, four in Mt. Vernon canyon, and 21 near Morrison, making the total 25. The servant girl, Anna Hansen, who was reported dead, was at the camp at the time of the flood and unconsciously escaped. A charcoal burner named Nichols, up at Evergreen, is reported missing, making the total 26. Of these, 16 bodies were recovered Saturday and the body of Mabel Herres, of Brooklyn, was found Sunday. P. Johnson, of Arvada, telephoned in to Denver Sunday afternoon that he had four bodies in the bed of the Platte river a mile above the town of Arvada. The coroner at Golden was notified and will make charge of the bodies.

Up to the discovery of these four bodies, no report of any missing persons has come from Golden. Arvada is a country hamlet about 10 miles from Denver along the Clear creek valley. These bodies, therefore, either floated down from Golden or are those of the people in Clear creek valley between the two points.

Score of the Northern Pacific. WEST SUPERIOR, Wis., July 27.—The entire Northern Pacific railroad property consisting of 100 miles of track, Lake Superior to Puget Sound, together with the branch lines, contracts, leases and bonds were sold Saturday under order of Judge Jenkins, of the United States court of Milwaukee, and was bid in by Edwin Winer, representing the New Northern Pacific railway. Two formal notices were read at the commencement of the sale, to prospective bidders, General Consul Grover Lumber, of Portland, Oregon, stating that to protect his rights, they were notified that they were expected to conform to the contract.

After the conclusion of the first sale there was offered at the county court house, where the lands in the Northern Pacific were being sold, the second mortgage bonds enough in their possession to bind sale, were taken as a guarantee. The party left for the west to continue the sale of the lands. Railroad Man Shot. JACKSONVILLE, Fla., July 27.—A dispatch from Orlando, Fla., says: Capt. N. Bailey Tucker, general manager of the Florida and Gulf railroad and local manager of the Gulf and Peninsular railroad, was shot at 8:30 o'clock Sunday night by Alfred St. Clair Abrams, prosecuting attorney of Lake county. The shooting occurred at Tucker's home, where he was dining with family with his wife and two children. Abrams fired one bullet into Tucker's head and another into his chest. Tucker was killed instantly. The shooting was the result of a quarrel between Abrams and Tucker. Abrams was later the anti-railroad candidate for the legislature in Lake county. He was defeated and charged that Tucker had brought it about by unfair means. Abrams' wife was spending the summer here, the exact date from Traverses Saturday night. Tucker and Abrams met Sunday night at the former's home, and the shooting resulted. Abrams immediately surrendered. Abrams is the only son of Maj. Alex St. Clair Abrams, who was formerly associated with Henry W. Grady on the Atlanta Herald.

Maj. Abrams came to Florida several years ago, and in politics has been one of the anti-railroad leaders. Sound Money Democrats Stirring. CHICAGO, July 27.—The executive committee of the sound money national democracy was busy Saturday morning by telegraph and mail, leading sound money democrats in other states with a view to securing prompt organization and the selection of provisional national officers for the meeting in Indianapolis, August 7, to arrange the time and place for holding the national convention and to elect a national committee. The committee desires, as far as feasible, that men of national prominence and public repute be named as committeemen, so that they can call for the convention to be held by them shall carry as great weight as possible. As soon as the executive committee members are secured by the state organizations or through the executive committee's correspondence, their names will be published. The Illinois, of Indiana, and Mr. Robbins, of Illinois, are doing most of the correspondence. The chairman, Bragg, of Missouri, has gone home for a few days.

The treasury gold reserve at the close of business Saturday was stated at $103,041,591.

E. Randolph Robinson, aged 55, a long member of the New York bar, civil service commissioner and prominent in club and social circles, died in his New York home.

The death of a coaster at Waltham, a suburb of London, on July 23, has occasioned a dispute among the medical fraternity of that place. The doctor who attended the man stated that his death was caused by cholera, but the statement is disputed by other physicians.

A dispatch from Constantinople to the Chronicle says that the latest accounts received there are to the effect that 40 prosperous villages by the coast Van in Armenia Turkey, have been destroyed and every male over eight years of age killed. Total killed are placed at 15,000.

Having reached the age limit, Gen. Richard N. Bacheider, quartermaster general of the regular army, will be retired Monday. Among the more prominent officers who are spoken of as his successor are Col. G. H. Jones, James M. Moore, Chas. G. Sawtelle and Marshall T. Lodington.

Mr. Arthur Sewall was interviewed by a representative of the United Press Saturday morning at his New York home. He said that he had no objection to the effect of the populist attack on Mr. Bryan's telegram. He had nothing to say and stated that he could not say anything until the populists had taken final action.

Edward E. Eckert, superintendent of the Exchange Metropolitan Telegraph and Telephone Co., New York, and brother of Thomas T. Eckert, president of the Western Union Telegraph Co., died of heart disease in Asbury Park, N. J., Sunday. He was sick only 35 minutes and was in his room when he died.

The Scotch miners are supporting the English miners' federation in the strike movement. In the north of England the miners' societies which are about 100 in number, in Great Britain urge that nothing should be done until they are satisfied that the miners' union will adhere to the board's agreement until it expires in December.

The porte has appropriated $230,000 of customs funds hypothecated to foreign bondholders. A protest against this seizure has been made by the council of administration at Constantinople who are charged with the distribution of the customs funds to the bondholders. The ambassadors of the powers support the council and will take measures to prevent further thefts, if they can. Meantime this amount is absorbed.

The prison physician had certified that the condition of his health has improved since his incarceration. Wilde was sentenced in 1895 to two years' imprisonment at hard labor.

At the national service in the Asbury Park (N. J.) auditorium Sunday afternoon, the speaker John P. Newman presented a sensation by declaring that populists were no better than anarchists and were not good American citizens. Instantly a tumult arose in the rear of the hall and shouted: "Bryan is a good American!" He cried to propose three cheers for the democratic-populist candidate for president, but his voice was drowned by the music of the choir.
